“ I first met Vincent when I handed him an umbrella on a rainy day. Years later, he frequented the Starbucks where I worked. I had the honor of providing him with coffee, a meal, and shelter from the elements outside. Recently, we would chat whenever I made a trip to Meijer. Vincent was so kind. He will truly be missed.

“ I talked to Vince a few times. Waved at him several times. He seemed to be a friendly man. I always saw people parked talking with him. I gave him $5 once at a gas station and he almost seemed like he didn't want to take it. I left a bouquet of flowers on the tree by McDonald's to pay my condolences to the family. I will pray for you all. It seems like a piece of the community is lost. Rest in peace Vince....

“ Vincent will always be remembered in our household. We have 3 kids who always pointed out “the man on the bike” when going to the stores. He’s helped on so many occasions like helping me, a stressed and tired mom looking for water filters one day. Maybe it’s an odd way to remember someone but everytime we switch them out I’ll have that fond little memory. We were so grateful to have had a couple conversations with him and to know his story. May he rest in heavenly peace
