“ I only knew Mr. Schmidt from Sunday Morning Mass were I am an usher. He always came in a little late and left before the mad rush to the door. Each week the communion was brought back to him. He was always very appreciative someone took the time to make sure communion was brought to him. He was happy and had a very nice way about him.
My condolences to the family and know you be in my prayers.##imported-begin##Tom Bailey##imported-end##

“ I will never forget Mr. Vince! He was always such a kind, generous gentleman. He spoke so often of his wife, Pearl, and missed her very much. Mr. Vince was the one who trained me at the Senior Centre on McMullen Drive and as a result of that training, I became manager. I have thought of him so often and had always hoped that we might meet again. What a loss for his family! He loved all of his family very much. I certainly feel a loss myself. Too bad there aren't more people in the world like Mr. Vince! I will miss him and I feel honored that I knew him.##imported-begin##Jeanie Robbins##imported-end##
