“ A gentle wind blew cross the land

Reaching out to take a hand

For on the winds the angels came

Calling out a mother's name.

Left behind, the children's tears

Loving memories of the years

Of joy and love, a life well spent

And now to God a mother's sent.

On angel's wings, a heavenly flight

The journey home, towards the light

To those who weep, a life is gone

But in God's love, 'tis but the dawn.

“ Frank,
 In times such as this, words do not come easily, and when they do, they always are so inadequate.
 Please know my heart shares the sorrow that you, your family, and the others touched by your mother's passing are feeling. I regret that I can not be there in person to express my condolences.
 I can not suggest that I fully understand the sorrow brought by this loss. The day that I must face the passing of my parents remains in the future, but from our conversations, I know how loving and deeply devoted you were to your mother. Her passing truly leaves a void in the lives of the people she touched.
 Hold the love in those memories, find strength in the support of family and friends, and know that your mother has returned to a better place where you will be reunited one day.
 With my deep sympathy,
 Phil

“ We all will miss Violet dearly. She will no longer share in our day to day events and nor will we be able to share our events with her. We all have fond memories of Violet. We will share those fond experiences with our families and friends. Violet had many interests, like reading, listening to music, gardening, feeding the wild birds plus talking with family, and friends.... I loved seeing her face light up when I made taco's for her and homemade cookies. I will always remember our chats on the phone, computer, and in person when we had the chance to see each other. Violet always had something to say and never a dull conversation. I am happy to say knowing Violet for 32 years has been very interesting. Violet Hall will always be in my thoughts and heart. I say farewell to my loving friend. We hope you like your new home in the Heavens above.

Your Loving Friends,

Karen, Bob, Cathy, and Robby

“ Our dearest Vi,

We love you and we'll miss you. ĩ½We know you are with Jesus now. ĩ½Andy says give Dad a hug. ĩ½I can still see Fran, Mer, Leo and Walt standing around telling jokes and trying to out do each other on the travel time to Vegas. ĩ½Vi, you stood there smiling with that knowing look on your face. ĩ½I remember all the laughter and all the happy times we had. ĩ½So our darling Vi, your work on earth is done.

Save a place for us with Jesus until we can all be together again. Linda##imported-begin##Linda Ellison##imported-end##

“ My prayers and deepest sympathy go to Frank and his family.

The last time I saw Vi was Aug. 2005, at her house. She came out to greet us wearing a headband across her forehead, shorts and a t-shirt that said something about ATTITUDE. Inside, the rock music was cranked up. All aunts should be so cool.

The world has a little less color without Aunt Vi.##imported-begin##Connie Styck##imported-end##
