“ To our dear Azzarelli Family,

You may not know it but we have prayed for your parents, Bart and Vivian, for over 30 years. We are the Sisters, St. Scholastica Priory from Petersham, MA, who visited them once a year in Tampa. The joy of both of them was contagious! Their love of you, their family, their roots and for all of life was overflowing! Your Mom would sit with a huge smile and take it all in with such interest. They were and are great people of faith. Be assured of our non ending prayers for them and for all of you!

God bless you all and give you comfort and strength,

Mother Mary Elizabeth and all the nuns at St. Scholastica Priory

“ For me Mrs. Vivian Azzarelli was the epitome of a great woman and friend. She shared her gifts of understanding, her compassion for others, her ability to empathize, the joy of laughter, her wisdom born of age, she always expressed her gratitude, with everyone she knew and loved. I can honestly say I am and will always be a better woman for having known her. She will forever live on in my heart and has touched my soul. ~Brenda Hillyer~
