“ Lee,

You may not remember me, but I've never forgotten the many summer evenings spent with your parents. While on our evening walk or bike ride, my mother and I would stop to visit my Uncle Pat and Aunt Rita. That was the neighborhood gathering area, and I can still picture your mom and dad crossing the street carrying their lawn chairs, cold drink, and many times bowl of popcorn! Good times and good people are never forgotten. My sympathy to you and your family.##imported-begin##Jane (Hebert) Hicks##imported-end##

“ I have many fond memories of the "gang"--from picnics to potlucks to boating together. The Clements were an intregal part of all of that and more. My parents (Harold and Vita Wetmore) considered them good friends and so do I. Please accept my sincerest sympathy.##imported-begin##Mike and Pat (Wetmore) Phelps##imported-end##
