“ Wally was a true gentleman and fellow veteran and we will miss him!

I offer this untitled poem that was left at my Mom's wake in 1999 for reflection!

Untitled

If I knew it would be the last time that I?d see you fall asleep,

I would tuck you in more tightly and pray the Lord your soul to keep.

If I knew it would be the last time that I see you walk out the door,

I would give you a hug and kiss and call you back for one more.

If I knew it would be the last time I?d hear your voice lifted up in praise,

I would videotape each action and word, so I could play them back day after day.

If I knew it would be the last time, I could spare an extra minute or two, to stop and say that ?I love you? instead of assuming that you know I do.

If I knew it would be the last time I would be there to share your day,

well, I?m sure you?ll
have so many more, so I can let this one slip away.

For surely there?s always tomorrow to make up for an oversight,

and we always get a second chance to make everything all right.

There will always be another day to say our ?loves you?s?

and certainly there?s another chance to say our ?Anything I can do?s?.

But just in case I might be wrong, and today is all we get,

I?d like to say how much I love you and hope we never forget.

Tomorrow is not promised to anyone, young and old alike, and today may be the last chance you get to hold your loved one tight.

So, if you?re waiting for tomorrow, why not do it today?

For if tomorrow never comes, you surely regret the day, that you didn?t take that extra time for a smile, a hug or kiss and you were too busy to grant someone, what turned out to be their one last wish.

So
hold your loved ones close today, whisper in their ear, tell them how much

you love them, and that you?ll always hold them dear.

Take the time to say ?I?m sorry?, ?Please forgive me?, ?Thank you? or ?It?s OK?.

And if tomorrow
never comes, you?ll have no regret about today!

“ I'm so sorry to be writing this-- Uncle Walter is such a funny, honest, friendly man to me. ĩ½I'll never forget his laugh and funny stories. ĩ½The family would never have been the same without him!! ĩ½And won't be the same now.

My deepest sympathy to Aunt Vi, Mike, Vickie, and Donna.

“ I'll always remember Uncle Walter for his great sense of humor like the time the family gathered at Bruns Restaurant after Grandpa's funeral. ÿ½Uncle Walter explained the car carrying the pastor was pulled over by the police, and said, "I thought we were going to have to bust the preacher out of the slammer!"###imported-begin###Amy Paulsen###imported-end###
