

Wanda Owens LeSage

July 21, 1927 - October 10, 2019

Wanda Owens LeSage, age 92, of Manteno passed away Thursday, October 10, 2019 at Riverside Senior Life in Bourbonnais. She was born July 21, 1927 in Dykersburg, the daughter of Thomas Wilson & Dessie (Boyd) Shaw. Wanda married Clifford Owens. He preceded her in death in January of 1987. Wanda then married Everell Bernard "Duke" LeSage on October 10, 1991. He preceded her in death on March 3, 2017.

Wanda was a homemaker and a bookkeeper for Owens Construction. She was also owner & manager of the James Edward Apartments. Wanda served as past President of the Manteno Women's Club. She enjoyed boating and water skiing into her 70's. She loved being out in the sunshine and enjoyed decorating and fashion design.

Wanda was a member of the Manteno United Methodist Church and past member of the First Baptist Church in Kankakee.

Surviving are two daughters, Colleen Owens (Grant) Brady of Maryville and Sue Owens (John) Piepenbrink of Manteno; three step-sons, Daniel (Alene) LeSage of Manteno, David LeSage of Manteno, and Darrell (Carol) LeSage of Jacksonville, FL; one step-daughter LuAnne (Randy) LeSage Harvell; four grandchildren, Terry Leverett Andrews, Tricia (Scott) Leverett Blackard, Cristal Piepenbrink (Jonathan) Schmidt, and Bradley (Krista) Piepenbrink, and nine great grandchildren. In addition to her husbands, Wanda is preceded in death by her parents; two sisters, Vivian Motsinger and Betty Mifflin; and one brother, Carnie Shaw.

Visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. until the time of the 11:30 a.m. funeral service on Monday, October 14, 2019 at the Manteno United Methodist Church. Rev. Joy Schlesselman will officiate the service. Burial will follow at Elmwood Cemetery in Manteno.

Memorials may be made to the Manteno United Methodist Church or Hospice of Kankakee Valley.

Arrangements by Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home in Manteno.
