“ Miss Vicky, I know there are no words. My heart hurts for you, for you help so many I wish I could return the favor. The way you would lite up when you talked about the love you had for each other, I'll never forget it. He is still there with you every day. Smile when you think of him, cry when you Miss him but most of all know that you got this. Hold tight to God's hand right now (even if you don't want to) He will get you though. Call as always anytime. Love you so much my friend.

“ I remember Wayne when all his family and myself went to school in Sheldon. He was a good guy and he enjoyed life to the fullest. His mother went to school with my mother and his dad worked with my father at Uarco. I really liked Wayne and he will be greatly missed by all.. Remember he is your guardian angel for the rest of eternity. God bless and take care. Remember he is in a better placed than we are.

“ Condolences to Vickie and all the family.
To Wayne, I'll always remember all the times we spent together.
Good and not so good.
Cub Scouts with your mom as den leader. Goofing off in class.
Carousing the streets. Hanging out with Don Rabe and Jeff Raymer.
Thanks for letting me borrow your car when I came back for my mom's funeral. Getting drunk a few times and a fight or two. Good memories of good times and a life well lived. Farewell old friend.
