“ Uncle Wayne as I got to know him when I started working with Big Daddy. What a fun guy to be around. He would show up at the job site and we would just BS. Got to know him more over the years and considered him a friend.. RIP UNCLE WAYNE you will be missed. Your friend "WILKO". Ron Wilkins.

“ I will never forget the day we were visiting Uncle Wayne and I wanted to go swimming so I ran in to ask my mom, I didn't realize she wasn't talking to me when she said yes, and she didn't hear me. When she came looking for us at dark time we were in the pool with blue lips shivering. We had fun though! And all the 4th of July parties, I will never forget the wonderful BBQ ribs! Then when the fireworks were done me and Robin would go find the empty containers that were in the fields and pretend they were bombs! <3 R.I.P. Uncle Wayne <3 Love and miss you all!!!

“ It is difficult to see this, brings on sadness to me. I want so bad to come there and be with our family and say good bye to Wayne. He has been in my life in all my years. I remember him giving me a white bunny when I was very small. He is there now with Annie and my parents, his parents and brothers, so rejoice in that. Rich hugs to my little nephews Gordon Wayne, Les and Michael and Melissa. Love to our family. God bless
