What a terrible loss to have Wayne gone from our sight.

It was nothing but our pleasure and blessing to have known him all our lives. He leaves the greatest memories in our hearts of his selfless acts of kindness, friendship and true love to our family for atleast three generations. He was more than a friend, to say the least. He will be terribly missed by our family who loved him dearly.
Spread your wings and enter into your Heavenly Fathers presence where your mansion surely awaits. We love you Wayne. Rest now
