“ My father was Louis Wolfe. Your dad and mine were classmates in high school, and up until the time that your dad went to the veteran's home, he was part of a group of classmates that met for breakfast every month. After he went to the veteran's home, daddy would go at least once a month to visit with him. Daddy talked about their visits frequently. When daddy went to Heaven in April 2017, I went to see your dad. I wanted to let him know that daddy wouldn't be coming to visit any longer. He was such a nice man. I visited him again later, and we had a very nice visit. I had thought about bringing him a new coloring book until he showed me his collection. He certainly didn't need another one. We are so blessed to have such great dads. I'm so sorry for your loss. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

Carol your dad was a gem. I was blessed to have been at the Veterans' home visiting when your father was there more than once. I was so sad to learn of his passing but didn't know how to get in touch with you as dad couldn't remember your full name. Dementia is such a robber of memory.
Thank you for taking the time to visit dad. He so loved company and being social.
I feel at peace knowing our dads are together now singing in the heaven above. 🙏
