“ RIP Bill. The best neighbors anyone could ask for! I have many fond memories. I remember one summer when a tame squirrel would often greet Bill when he came out of the front door. It would run up his pant leg, climb the back, over his shoulder and sit in his shirt pocket.

I recall many conversations with Sharon in the backyard and we watched Bret and Nate grow from small boys into men.

Cindy and I are so very sorry for the loss of Bill.

“ Bill was such a kind neighbor. We lived behind him. He was always in his yard working on something. He loved taking walks with his grandkids. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.
