“ Jake and girls, We are so sorry to hear about your loss. We can sympathize with you as we lost a dad and husband unexpectedly. We know it is such a shock and difficult loss to understand and accept; however, we know God will place His loving arms around you. We feel as if you all are a part of our family, too. (Lexie thinks Grandpa Jake is her grandpa too simply because Jenna is her cousin. And if Jake is Jenna's grandpa...then he must be Lexie's grandpa, too.) Willie has always been very kind to us, and we greatly appreciate her loving heart. We are praying for you daily and ask God to comfort you in this difficult time. Much love and prayers, the Mullins and Wrights ###imported-begin###Kim, J.R. Mullins, Bonnie and Mike Wright###imported-end###

“ There will come a day when the tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...and your heart will begin healing itself...and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...as a sun shower of the soul...a turning of the tide...a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will...risk loving...go on believing...and treasure the tears of remembrance. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.##imported-begin##Magallon Family##imported-end##
