“ Bill was a wonderful man. He will be sadly missed.

I spent a lot of time with the family growing up in Bourbonnais. Bill was like a second father to me. I appreciated all the advice he had given me. Bill gave me the nickname of "Cookie" and I would him "Dad". As I got older and had my own family, I would see Bill out and about and in the grocery store, we would talk and ketch up on how things were going. He never forgot who I was and he would still call me "Cookie".

My condolences to Barb, John, Doug, David, and Dennis and their families. My love is sent to all of you in this time of need. We will never forget "Dad"!

My prayers are with you,

Linda Gabrisko Langelier
