“ I miss Bill. He was a great friend and fellow golfer. I first met Bill and Shela at Al Salam aircraft in Riyadh Saudi Arabia. After returning to the States we often got together to visit and golf. He would I come to where I was or I would go to Matthews. A group of us Men would meet each year to go to mesquite Nevada for golfing Bill and I and the other men all enjoyed that. The last time we golfed was around Matthews. His back started hurting so we quit. I Think that was the last time he golfed. I have so many great memories of Bill, Sheila And Their family.

“ Our sympathy go out to Bill's family. I know that he was much loved and respected. He had a wonderful sense of humor and always had a smile on his face whenever I was around him. He's fought a long tough road that is now over and he is happy and at peace in heaven. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Kathy, Sharon, Sandy and their families.##imported-begin##Larry & Genice Bailey##imported-end##
