“ I met Bill many years ago through Debbie & Barry and he sure loved his family!.....Betty, his girls, Debbie, Kathy & Trudy and all his grandchildren! He loved to visit and always wanted you to come & sit down to talk! He will be missed by many! I'm glad I got to see him a few years ago scooting around the neighborhood on his scooter & feeding the neighborhood dogs with treats. May you rest in peace, Bill! Praying for comfort for Debbie, Trudy, & Kathy and their families at this time of his loss.

“ Best neighbor, ever! When we moved in, Bill and Betty took such care of us, always asking after us, our daughter and all our Boxer dogs. He was there to offer advice, lend a tool and always inviting us to pull up a chair and have a chat. What a marvelous man. My sympathies to all of his family. Love, Joan Germano

“ Papa Bill was such an awesome man. I am proud to say he was my friend. I am privileged. I am so glad he was surrounded by family in his golden years. Truly a very special man. I am deeply saddened and wish God speed to Bill. He built a fantastic family and his legacy will live on.

“ Bill and Betty were not only my brothers in-laws, but Family. My mom's birthday was also Bill and Betty's anniversary. The 4 of them would always celebrate together. My Dad and Bill's favorite movie was Smokey and the Bandit and always called the other "SomBitch" from the movie. Rest in peace Bill, and play cards, dance and celebrate your homecoming with our lost loved ones. We now have another Guardian Angel 😊🙏❤️
