“ I had the great priveledge of meeting Mr. Wilhoyt in June of 2003 while attending his granddaughter's wedding. I also got to meet his wonderful wife. He was sick at this time but he kept a great attitude. He was watching sports and me & Bill watched some TV with him. I also visited with his wife - she showed me lots of pictures and gave me lots of rootbeers. His house was full of love and he was a great, great man. I'm so sorry that it took me so long to hear the news - I am so sorry about your loss and know that all the Wilhoyt's are in my prayers. All my love & best *Amanda*##imported-begin##Amanda Lautwein##imported-end##
