“ Although we do not know Zach's family, Zach was a part of our family when he delivered for Pepsi to our store. We looked forward to him coming through the door on delivery day, a big "HELLO ZACH"!! he always got from us. Oh that smile, his kindness, going above and beyond for us. Who didn't love Zach! He was by far our favorite driver. Our hearts are so broken, but glad we got to know Zach, and got to be a part of his life. Rest easy sweetheart.. We love you, Sharon Krause-Earl & Kerrie Earl

“ This hurts my heart. Zach was such a light. I sat by him in English class Sophomore year of high school and he taught me to twirl a pencil around my fingers in one hand. I still think of him every time I find myself doing it. I worked with him for a while at Bumper to Bumper/Lang Auto Parts after high school. He always greeted me, “Hello Sunshine!” I loved seeing his smiling face when we ran into each other every once in a while. Last time was at Merchant Street this past summer when he came to me for baby wipes. Prayers to the family! 🙏😭
